HISTORY

In our studio, refined artistry joins thoughtful innovation. Susan Harter is a classically-trained artist who studied at Harvard and in realist art academies. She spent twenty years painting murals in some of New England's finest homes. Her husband Matt, a pressman, replicated masterworks for museums. Together they realized that new digital printing methods were uniquely suited to capturing the soft, ethereal tones and gentle glazes of Susan's work. After years of experimentation, they mastered a trade secret method of replicating Susan's murals, at a level unparalleled in the world of printed mural wallpaper.

Each mural we print possesses the same exquisite character as its original. You can sense the innate quality of the archival canvas, and feel nature's presence in the fluid movement of the brushstrokes. Each mural is scaled to best suit your residence, and arranged to your liking.

We believe you deserve a mural that fills your home with beauty, delight, and a sense of peace. Susan and her small team of artists give passionate, personalized attention to each project. Every step of the process, from beginning to end, is fulfilled right here in our studio in Port Townsend, WA.

HOW TO ORDER

Would you like Tailored or Straight Run?

Tailored Run is best for more complex projects, such as spaces with sloped ceilings, built-ins, wide windows, or stairwells. We make custom height rolls of material to fit each area of your room.

For example, we'd run longer panels up stairwells, or put shorter panels over large doorways. This method requires detailed measurements. The mural arrives on 35" wide rolls, with a schematic showing your installer how to arrange it on-site. Minimum order $3500.

Straight Run works best for simpler projects, such as a single wall, or a straightforward room layout with no large doors or windows. You choose from our 15 standard stock heights, and we send you as many 35" wide panels as you need to cover your walls. Minimum order is $1500.

“ There are so many wonderful old estates and parks in New England, and I’ve spent many a happy weekend doing plein air painting on their grounds. In those gentle, rolling landscapes, warmth is something to treasure, for as the poet said, ‘That spring, briefer than apple-blossom’s breath, Summer, so much too beautiful to stay.’ ”

PALM BEACH - FRESH

*“ The palms in the breeze, the warm sandy beaches, the incredible chic...Palm Beach is lush with inspiration!
I wanted to paint a mural that would capture the warmth, the light, and the sense of paradise. ”*
